EXCHANGE TALK

ON IMPROVING GENDER EQUALITY IN THE STEM INDUSTRY

Talk

The CEO and owner of Puck Solutions will share his experience in succeeding the massive challenge of increasing women representation in an IT company, focusing on the strategies to support women in their path to leadership, and on the benefits of increasing diversity in a tech environment.

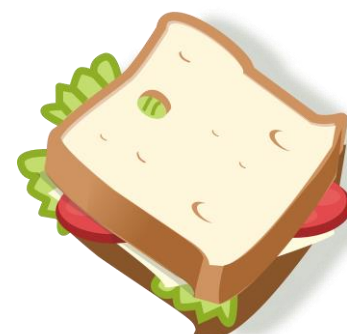

Discussion

After the talk, we will have time for questions and discussion on how the approach put in place in the private sector could also be applied to academia.
