

INTERNATIONAL PhD FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMME

Application deadline: March 6th, 2020

I. WHO CAN APPLY

1. Can I apply if I have not finished my university studies?

You can only apply either if you hold a Masters Degree or equivalent or an equivalent University Degree that allows you to start a PhD thesis in the candidate's home country by October 2020

2. Can international students apply (those outside of EU/EEA)?

There are no nationality restrictions. Students of all nationalities can apply for the CRG PhD Programme

3. Should I contact the supervisor(s) to discuss my application?

It is not necessary to contact the supervisor to discuss your application. In the application form, you will be asked to indicate your preferred research groups (max. 2 projects)

II. SUBMISSION

4. How can I submit my application?

Applications for the CRG – GDL International PhD Fellowships Programme are accepted exclusively online through the online application system, which is available on the CRG website.

You will be required to indicate the name of 2 referees together with the application form. You will only be able to submit the application once all mandatory fields have been completed.

Once the application is submitted, you will receive automatically by email an acknowledgement of receipt with a reference number which should be included in any further correspondence.

5. Do I need to register to submit an application?

Yes. To submit a new application please, go to the online application system, click on "Start new application", complete and save the mandatory personal details. If the registration is successful, you will receive an automatic email confirming your registration and providing the login details. You will be able to complete the rest of the application before logging out or alternatively you can log out and continue working on the application later and until the call deadline.

6. May I provide the reference letters on behalf of my referees?

No.

7. Who should I name as referees?

Your referees should be 2 scientists who are familiar with your academic work and/or research experience and who can judge your potential as a PhD student.

Please select your referees carefully: one must be your current or most recent employer/supervisor, at least one must be able to comment on your university academic record, and at least one must be able to comment on your previous research experience.

8. I made a mistake in my application and I have submitted it - can I change it?

No, you cannot make changes to submitted applications, and we will not do so on your behalf. Therefore, please double-check your application before submission.

9. Can I submit two fellowship applications to the call?

No, you may only submit one application.

10. If I do not have the transcripts of my Masters yet, what shall I upload in the form?

If you do not have the transcripts of your masters by the time you fill the form, please upload an official document proving your enrolment in the Masters and/or an official document stating that the transcripts are in the process of being issued.

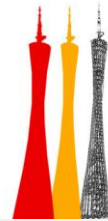

11. When is the deadline for applications?

The deadline for applications for the current call is 2pm (GMT) on Friday, 6 March 2020.

INTERNATIONAL PhD FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMME

Application deadline: March 6th, 2020

III. SELECTION PROCESS

12. Which are the evaluation criteria for the applications?

The selection of the fellows will be in different steps (pre-selection based on the CV, evaluation of the CV by the prospective Group Leaders and Skype interview) and based on the candidates' academic qualifications and research excellence as described on the website. The call calendar for the selection round is available on the website.

13. Does the selection process involve an interview?

Yes, pre-selected candidates will be interviewed via Skype first by the prospective Supervisors, then they will have to go through an admission interview by the CRG PhD Committee (GC).

14. When will I know if my application has been pre-selected? When will candidates be informed about the final results?

Pre-selected and non pre-selected candidates will be informed by mid-March. Successful and non-successful candidates after the interviews will be informed the first week of April 2020.

15. If my application is successful, when will the fellowship start?

Selected candidates should start their fellowships at earliest on October, 1st 2020

16. Do I need to register separately with a university to do my PhD at CRG?

Yes. Students are free to register with the University of their choice, normally a local one (Universitat Pompeu Fabra or Universitat de Barcelona). You complete your coursework at the university, while concurrently doing practical training and work toward your thesis in a CRG - GDL research laboratory.
