

Gemma is a Principal at Invivo Partners, a Spanish venture capital firm based in Barcelona, focused on early-stage investments and technology transfer in innovative areas of drug development. Invivo Partners manages three VC funds, including its first fund, Healthequity, launched in 2012, a second fund raised in 2019 with €60M under management and a third fund launched in 2024 targeting 100M€. Backed by a majority of private investors and supported by institutions such as the European Investment Fund, Fond-ICO Global, the Catalan Finance Institute, the Valencia Institute of Finance, and the Barcelona City Council, Invivo Partners seeks opportunities across Europe and leverages a strong co-investment network. Previously, Gemma was a Project Manager at UPF Ventures. She holds a BSc in Biomedical Sciences from the University of Barcelona, an MSc in Business Management Applied to Biotechnology from the Biotechnology Business Institute, and a Postgraduate Certificate in Financial Management from UPF Barcelona School of Management. She currently serves as a Board Observer at Telomere Therapeutics, EsoBiotec, Intega Therapeutics, Telum Therapeutics, Peptomyc, and Signadori Bio.